An outline for a tutorial game intended to teach a new player the basics of the game. In tutorial, the game will explain the objective at each stage (which will be to understand one or more aspects of the game), and then wait for the player to perform the prescribed action(s) before continuing.

[1] To understand:
- The game and the player's objective.

Player Action: None, only watch a (very brief) demo of a game in progress with annotations.

[2] To understand:
- How to start a game.
- The difference between Base set and Extension Set.
- How to select a starting party.
- What the starting Creature cards represent.
- Creature card stats and abilities.

Player Action:
- Choose Woman-Hero and Dwarf.
- Start a game.

[3] To understand:
- What the Gateway represents,
- How to access full screen mode.
- What the Settings panel offers
- How to save and/or exit a game.
- The Party panel and how to expand it.
- Navigation arrows.

Player Action:
- Choose to explore North. (A Tunnel is revealed).

[4] To understand:
- How areas are represented.
- What a Tunnel is.
- Changing camera views.
- Zooming the camera.
- Looking around in the "Home" mode.

Player Action:
- Try adjusting the camera view, press [Continue] when done. (View reverts).
- Explore North. (Chamber with a Spectre).

[5] To understand:
- What a Chamber is
- When and how small cards are drawn.
- First encounter: A Spectre.
- About Strength and Magical Strength.
- High risk encounters.
- Stealth and withdrawal options.

Player Action:
- Choose to Withdraw South, via the tunnel to the Gateway.
- Then choose to explore West. (A tunnel).
- Choose to explore North. (A Chamber with a Trap to a Tunnel on level 2.)

[6] To understand:
- What a Hazard is.
- How to looking around using the orbital mode.
- The level selector.

Player Action:
- Choose Home view.
- Choose to explore West. (A Chamber with a Priest guarding a Magic Axe.)

[7] To understand:
- About Strangers
- Approaching Strangers and their reactions.

Player Action:
- Approach and successfully recruit the Priest.
- Give the Axe to the Woman-Hero.

[8] To understand:
- About artefacts and weapons.
- About carry vs wield, and bonuses.
- Who can use artefacts.

Player Action:
- Use the Inventory panel to transfer the Axe to Dwarf, have the Dwarf wield it.
- Choose to explore North. (A tunnel with a Stair Up.)

[9] To understand:
- About stairways.
- About secret doors.

Player Action:
- Use the stair to a tunnel on L1.
- Go back down to L2.
- Choose to explore East. (A chamber with a Troll guarding Gems.)

[10] To understand:
- How the combat UI is laid out.
- Defensive fighting.
- Front line deployment.
- How fights progress.
- Fight outcomes and casualties.

Player Action:
- Approach the Troll (Hostile, it attacks).
- Deploy your frontline: Woman-Hero + Dwarf.
- Fight proceeds.
- Troll {4+surprise(1)+d6(4)} = 9 versus Party {4+4+d6(3)} = 11
- Troll falls. Collect Gems.
- Choose to explore East. (A special Chamber - The Tomb of Kings. Draw 3 cards - Hazard = Earthquake! + A Witch guarding the Magic Ring.)

[11] To understand:
- Earthquake Hazard.
- Special Chambers.

- The card view.
- How to assess Strangers and their Treasure.
- High value Artefacts.
- Gaining surprise bonus.
- How to attack.

Player Action:

- Take a closer look at that Ring and its guardian via the Card View. (That ring is too valuable to risk approaching a likely hostile creature - time to use a surprise attack!)
- Choose Attack.
- Deploy Hero and Dwarf with Priest in support vs Witch.
- Fight proceeds.
- Party {4+4+support(2)+surprise(1)+d6(1)} = 12 versus Witch {5+d6(6)} = 11.
- Witch falls.
- Collect the Ring.

[12] Tutorial ends with “Following the Earthquake, you cannot retrace your steps - you will have to find another way forward”....
